Lt. Governor Ramsey appoints Mountain States Health Alliance Senior VP to Health Equity Commission

(Nashville) – Lt. Governor Ron Ramsey (R-Blountville) has appointed Marvin Eichorn, Senior Vice-President and Chief Financial Officer of Mountain States Health Alliance, to the Tennessee Health Equity Commission. The goal of the HEC is to improve access and quality of healthcare for underserved populations in Tennessee.

“Marvin Eichorn has decades of experience in identifying and responding to the healthcare needs of individuals and communities in Tennessee,” said Lt. Governor Ramsey. “His experience in our free market healthcare system will be invaluable in providing quality healthcare for those in need.”

In addition to his work for Mountain States Health Alliance, Mr. Eichorn has served as President of the Northeast Tennessee Hospital District of the Tennessee Hospital Association and on the Board of Directors of the THA. He currently serves on the Board of the Northeast State Foundation and Asbury Centers, a multi-state long-term care company. Prior to joining MSHA, he worked for the Covenant Health/Fort Sanders Health System in Knoxville.
